Arthur Barns (Sergeant, Sanford Police Department), date of birth [REDACTED] B/M, work address 815 W 13th Street, Sanford, Florida, was interviewed at his place of employment. Barns was advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and that he was being interviewed in reference to the Sanford Community. Barns provided the following information:

Barns was born in Sanford, Florida, where he has lived and worked his entire life. Barns served in the U.S. Army from 1980-1983 as a Military Police Officer.

Barns has been employed at the Sanford Police Department for 25 years. During his time at the Police Department he served one term as an investigator. Barns was promoted to Sergeant in 2002. Barns is currently assigned as the supervisor of the Property Crimes Division. This is Barns' third term as a supervisor in investigations. Barns has been assigned to the Property Division since March of 2011.

Barns stated he grew up on the west side of Sanford, which was primarily African American at the time. He stated the racial makeup back then was 60% white and 40% black. Barns states he believes the percentages are still the same but are more spread out and not predominate in any specific area.

Barns could not provide specific knowledge of The Retreat at Twin Lakes Subdivision. He acknowledges there has been some burglaries in the area and that has been an issue. Barns recalled an burglary incident that occurred a few weeks prior to the ZIMMERMAN-Martin shooting. The incident involved an occupied burglary with three African American male suspects and a white male suspect.

Barns stated that prior to the development of The Retreat at Twin Lakes it was an un-developed area. That area was not known to be associated with any particular race.

Barns stated the number one crime issue in the City of Sanford is burglaries. Burglaries have been the focus of the Police Department, more specifically the Property Division.

Barns is unsure how the younger African American Community is going to react to the outcome of the incident.

Barns believes the African American Community would be in an "uproar" if ZIMMERMAN is not charged. The community will be satisfied if an arrest takes place. As for the civil rights investigation, if it is determined to be a violation of Trayvon Martin's civil rights then it will reflect negatively on the Sanford Police Department and fingers will be pointed at them for not doing their job properly. Barns feels the community is at a 50/50 split whether it was a hate crime or not.

Barns felt the shooting was not racially motivated, but it was a man shooting an un-armed kid.

WENDY DORIVAL (Volunteer Program Coordinator, Sanford Police Department), work address 815 W 13th Street, Sanford, Florida, was interviewed at her place of employment. Dorival was advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and that she was being interviewed in reference to her duties involving the community watch program at The Retreat at Twin Lakes. Dorival provided the following information:

Dorival has worked for the Sanford Police Department for four years. Dorival is assigned to the Volunteer Program for the Sanford Police Department. Her position is considered to be a civilian in law enforcement. In August of 2011, Dorival was assigned to the community watch program.

During the community watch meetings conducted at The Retreat at Twin Lakes, Dorival never spoke or showed any presentations regarding gang activity in the Sanford area. If a community asks for such presentation she would refer them to the Gang Investigator Josh Memminger. The community never asked about local gangs. The community focus was on burglaries and kids using a non-gated portion of the community as a walk through.

More specifically, Dorival did not recall speaking to ZIMMERMAN about gangs or gang activities in the area.

ZIMMERMAN contacted Dorival via email about a recent burglary that took place in the neighborhood and asked if there was a suspect. Dorival told ZIMMERMAN there was a suspect, but did not give any specific details. Dorival said ZIMMERMAN contacted the victim of the burglary to find out more information about the suspect/s. Dorival stated she provided copies of the emails to and from ZIMMERMAN to The Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE).

Dorival provided a copy of the Sanford Police Department report that occurred August 3, 2011. The incident is the occupied burglary where ZIMMERMAN contacted the victim, [REDACTED] and received the suspect description. The suspect in the case was [REDACTED], date of birth [REDACTED], residence address [REDACTED] Retreat View Circle, Sanford, Florida. (Sanford Police Report [REDACTED]) work station. ZIMMERMAN was granted permission, and brought the chair to use at his desk. When ZIMMERMAN would leave for the night, ZIMMERMAN would use a personal locking mechanism to secure his chair to his work station to ensure it was not removed during the night shift.

In October of 2011, ZIMMERMAN came into work and noticed the locking mechanism he used to secure his chair had been cut. This incident was subsequently reported to [REDACTED]. An internal review discovered an information technology (IT) employee by the name of [REDACTED] cut the lock to gain access to ZIMMERMAN's work station.

The internal review found that [REDACTED] could have used better discretion and handled the situation differently. The decision was made to reimburse ZIMMERMAN for the price of the lock. ZIMMERMAN provided [REDACTED] with a receipt for the lock indicating the lock cost $6.00. [REDACTED] provided ZIMMERMAN with payment for the lock and the issue was resolved.

According to [REDACTED] this was a small incident that ZIMMERMAN handled in a professional manner. [REDACTED] did not think [REDACTED] and ZIMMERMAN had any interaction that resulted from this incident. [REDACTED] is no longer an employee of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] separation from the company was not a result of this incident.

When asked if ZIMMERMAN had any known biases, prejudices, or irrational attitude against any class of citizen, religious, racial, gender, or ethnic group, [REDACTED] responded by saying "no." Furthermore, no complaints had been filed against ZIMMERMAN at the workplace that would indicate ZIMMERMAN had a bias against anyone.

On February 27, 2012, between the hours of 8:45 a.m. and 9:00 a.m., [REDACTED] was walking into work when he was approached by ZIMMERMAN. [REDACTED] immediately noticed ZIMMERMAN had medical tape across his nose that ran under his eyes. [REDACTED] observed [REDACTED] ZIMMERMAN's face was black and blue under the tape that ran across the front of his face. [REDACTED] noticed bruising beneath the tape of both of ZIMMERMAN's eyes. [REDACTED] a neighborhood watch. ZIMMERMAN told [REDACTED] about an incident where ZIMMERMAN's wife had recently observed somebody leaving the residence of a single mother and ZIMMERMAN's wife did not recognize the person which caused concern. According to [REDACTED] ZIMMERMAN told him the story as an example of why the neighborhood watch was formed.

[REDACTED] interjected and asked ZIMMERMAN if they had registered the neighborhood watch with the police department. ZIMMERMAN told him that it was registered with the police department.

ZIMMERMAN talked about seeing a suspicious person in the neighborhood, and ZIMMERMAN followed the suspicious person to tell the police where the person went. ZIMMERMAN told him that he got out of his car to look for the suspicious person. As ZIMMERMAN was returning to his car, he was struck in the face by the person. As ZIMMERMAN was falling to the ground, ZIMMERMAN started calling for help. The person got on top of ZIMMERMAN and started hitting his head on the pavement. ZIMMERMAN made a repeated motion with his hands describing somebody using both hands to secure and slam a person's head into the pavement.

ZIMMERMAN had a gun on him that was in a holster. The person was trying to get the gun out of the holster. The person told ZIMMERMAN you are going to die. ZIMMERMAN reached down during the struggle, grabbed the gun, and shot. After the shot was fired, the person said, "you got me." When the person said "you got me", ZIMMERMAN thought the person was giving up.

ZIMMERMAN told [REDACTED] that the police deemed this was an act of self defense, and ZIMMERMAN was released. As ZIMMERMAN was describing this incident, ZIMMERMAN appeared concerned about the incident. ZIMMERMAN described the incident in a "matter of fact" tone. ZIMMERMAN did not provide a physical description of the person he had the altercation with. ZIMMERMAN provided no further description of this incident.

At one point, ZIMMERMAN turned his head which allowed [REDACTED] to view a number of abrasions on the back of ZIMMERMAN's head. When asked to be more specific about the number of abrasions, [REDACTED] responded by saying possibly 4 or 5 but [REDACTED] was uncertain about the exact number. [REDACTED] did notice

PAUL FLEISCHMAN, Special Agent, also from the State of Florida, Department of Business and Professional Regulation, Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco based out of Pensacola, Florida, telephone number (850)494-5970 was contacted telephonically. After being advised of the identity of the contacting agents, FANNIN, LENT, GILMORE and FLEISCHMAN provided the following information:

In July of 2005, FANNIN, LENT, GILMORE, FLEISCHMAN, and their Captain, GERMAN GORZONE, who has since been terminated, performed an undercover operation at a bar near the University of Central Florida known as Knight's Library. During the operation, an underage undercover operator went into the bar, attempted to purchase, and was sold alcoholic beverages. As a result, multiple bar employees were removed from the establishment and placed under arrest.

While the state law enforcement agents were processing the prisoners, GEORGE ZIMMERMAN approached one of the prisoners and asked the prisoner what was going on. FLEISCHMAN informed ZIMMERMAN that he was a state law enforcement agent, showed ZIMMERMAN his badge, and told him to wait off to the side and FLEISCHMAN would explain to him what was going on after the agents were finished with the prisoners. ZIMMERMAN had an angry demeanor and told FLEISCHMAN that he did not care who he was. FLEISCHMAN attempted to escort ZIMMERMAN away from the scene. ZIMMERMAN then shoved FLEISCHMAN, at which point all of the agents on the scene pushed ZIMMERMAN onto the hood of FANNIN's car and placed him under arrest for battery on a law enforcement officer.

At no point during the interaction with ZIMMERMAN did he ever use a racial slur or other discriminatory comment against the agents. All of the agents on the scene were white except the Captain, who was Hispanic. The State Prosecutor's office later dropped the charges against ZIMMERMAN.

Sanford Police Investigator, JOSH MEMMINGER, Gang Intelligence Suppression Unit (GISU), work phone number [REDACTED] was interviewed at Sanford Police Station on March 4, 2012 at approximately 3:00pm. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing agents, SA Elizabeth C Alexander and SA Matthew Oliver, and the nature of the interview, he provided the following information:

Memminger has worked for the Sanford Police Department for four years. Memminger has been assigned to the GISU for approximately one year.

Memminger explained to Agents about the gangs that are in the Sanford area. The gangs refer to themselves as GOONS, which is a popular word in the community. There are currently three different groups of Goons. The first is the 14TH STREET GOONS and all members are African American and their colors are blue and black. The second group of Goons are the WASHINGTON OAKS GOONS and all members are African American except one male who is white. The Washington Oak Goons affiliate themselves with the BLOODS. The third type of Goons are the MIDWAY GOONS and Memminger believed all members are African American. In addition, a fourth gang is the SUREÑOS and members of this gang are Hispanic.

Memminger said the Goons attire depends on the weather. In the cold weather they are known to wear hoodies and dress in layers. In the warmer weather, the Goons typically wear "tall tees" with jeans or shorts.

Memminger had never heard of GEORGE ZIMMERMAN prior to the shooting incident. ZIMMERMAN nor anyone else in the RETREATS AT TWIN LAKES had ever asked him for information regarding gangs in the community. Memminger did not know of any documented gang members in the Retreat at Twin Lake community.

Sanford Police Investigator, CHRISTOPHER SERINO, work phone number 407-417-7866, personal cell [REDACTED] was interviewed at Sanford Police Station on March 3, 2012 at approximately 11:00 am. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing agents, SA Elizabeth C Alexander and SA Matthew Oliver, and the nature of the interview, he provided the following information:

Investigator Serino reviewed his police report dated 03/12/2012 in which he wrote, "The encounter between GEORGE ZIMMERMAN and TRAYVON MARTIN was ultimately avoidable by ZIMMERMAN, if ZIMMERMAN had remained in his vehicle and awaited the arrival of law enforcement, or conversely if he had identified himself to MARTIN as a concerned citizen and initiated dialog in an effort to dispel each party's concern. There is no indication that Trayvon MARTIN was involved in any criminal activity at the time of the encounter. ZIMMERMAN, by his statements made to the call taker and recorded for review, and his statements made to investigators following the shooting death of MARTIN, make it clear that he had already reached a faulty conclusion as to MARTIN's purpose for being in the neighborhood."

Agents asked SERINO about the above statement and he replied that just the act of following him (MARTIN) was the instigation (of ZIMMERMAN) and nothing else. SERINO believed that ZIMMERMAN's actions were not based on MARTIN's skin color rather based on his attire, the total circumstances of the encounter and the previous burglary suspects in the community.

Serino explained to agents that the local gangs, referred to in the community as "GOONS", typically dressed in black and wore hoodies. Serino believes that when ZIMMERMAN saw MARTIN in a hoody, ZIMMERMAN took it upon himself to view MARTIN as acting suspicious. Serino described ZIMMERMAN as overzealous and as having a "little hero complex", but not as a racist. Serino explained that on numerous occasions he asked ZIMMERMAN specifically if he followed MARTIN based on his skin color and ZIMMERMAN never admitted to this fact.

Serino told agents that he has talked to ZIMMERMAN on numerous occasions and feels like he knows him fairly well. Serino thinks that ZIMMERMAN does not want to be a cop because cops have a bad reputation and are bullies, but he wants to be a judge. Serino described ZIMMERMAN as being a "soft guy". Serino believed that ZIMMERMAN's story ██████████ moved to his current residence on July 1, 2006 and joined the community neighborhood watch program (NWP) around mid August 2011. ██████████ had contacted the Sanford Police Department (SPD) in person and via the telephone to address some issues prior to the establishment of the NWP. The community home owner's associations (HOA) point of contact ██████████ (Phonetic Spelling) established the NWP in conjunction with the SPD. ██████████ participated as a captain in the NWP until about Christmas 2011. Although ██████████ stopped participating in the NWP program, he still kept an eye out on the units around his residence. ██████████ noted there was no hierarchy in the NWP and the term captain did not imply any type of special authority. ██████████ did not advise anyone of his decision to stop participating in the NWP, because it was so loosely affiliated there was no one to tell. There was no training provided to the NWP volunteers, but they did receive an emergency and non emergency number for the SPD. ██████████ attended approximately three NWP meetings, which were contained inside of the HOA meetings. ██████████ estimated approximately 40 people attending the December HOA/NWP meeting. The SPD gave state of affairs briefings at the HOA meetings for the NWP. The HOA produced a monthly letter that included NWP information.

██████████ knew GEORGE ZIMMERMAN to be a member of the community NWP, but ██████████ did not know ZIMMERMAN on a personal level. ██████████ did not know ZIMMERMAN's wife and has never been inside of ZIMMERMAN's residence. ██████████ never heard ZIMMERMAN state any prejudice or bias based on race or ethnicity. ██████████ noted ZIMMERMAN wanted a safe community and did not care about any individual's skin color.

[REDACTED] stated "I don't think he [ZIMMERMAN] was properly represented in the media, he is a good person." [REDACTED] also stated ZIMMERMAN has "a good reputation" as an employee and the ladies in his previous "group" would always include ZIMMERMAN in their social work functions or "save him a piece of cake."

[REDACTED] stated ZIMMERMAN did not have direct contact with [REDACTED] clients; ZIMMERMAN reviewed documents and spoke with individuals during third party verification. [REDACTED] never received a complaint from any individual and no one has stated anything derogatory about ZIMMERMAN. [REDACTED] stated if ZIMMERMAN was sitting here today she would "continue to look to advancement" for ZIMMERMAN. [REDACTED] also stated ZIMMERMAN was close to advancement with the organization.

[REDACTED] provided details in reference to an incident involving ZIMMERMAN and an IT employee, [REDACTED] which occurred within the last six months. [REDACTED] explained ZIMMERMAN had complained about a back injury and he purchased a special orthopedic work chair. ZIMMERMAN used his own lock to secure the chair to his desk/computer area. [REDACTED] believed ZIMMERMAN locked the chair to his desk to prevent the chair from being moved to another location. [REDACTED] stated it was not uncommon for chairs to be moved around the office for various reasons. [REDACTED] cut ZIMMERMAN's lock to gain access to his computer without informing ZIMMERMAN or [REDACTED]. Also, in cutting the lock, which was ZIMMERMAN's personal property, [REDACTED] "caused a mess" at ZIMMERMAN's desk. ZIMMERMAN informed [REDACTED] his lock had been cut in which [REDACTED] sent an e-mail to [REDACTED] in Human Resources. After the lock had been cut ZIMMERMAN took his chair home. [REDACTED] stated people around the office were upset but ZIMMERMAN handled the situation "well," "very low key" and did not "lose his patience." [REDACTED] could not state for sure if ZIMMERMAN knew who cut his lock. [REDACTED] stated ZIMMERMAN followed the appropriate protocol and handled the situation in a "professional and appropriate" manner.

In reference to [REDACTED] he was an IT person assigned to a "night shift." [REDACTED] was told by staff at [REDACTED] that he could have handled the situation differently. [REDACTED] is described as a "small, frail, Caucasian male, in his early twenties."

On 03/30/2012, [REDACTED] DOB [REDACTED] was contacted at her residence, [REDACTED]. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview [REDACTED] provided the following information:

[REDACTED] serves as the [REDACTED] for the RETREAT at TWIN LAKES (RTL) home owners association (HOA). [REDACTED] is the property manager, for RTL. The HOA meets the 3rd Tuesday of every month. There are approximately 260 units in RTL. RTL is a very diverse neighborhood. [REDACTED] estimated it was one-third White, one third Hispanic and one third African American.

[REDACTED] is not involved with the neighborhood watch committee (NWC). The NWC is a volunteer committee with no set meetings with anywhere from 4-5 members. The NWC has had maybe 2 meetings with the Sanford Police Department (SPD) over the last year. SPD gave guidelines for the NWC to adhere to. The NWC does not patrol, but are given an area of the community to keep an eye on. To [REDACTED] knowledge there have been no complaints against GEORGE ZIMMERMAN (ZIMMERMAN) or any other NWC member.

[REDACTED] has seen ZIMMERMAN a handful of times at the HOA meetings. Twice he rang her doorbell to be social. Each encounter lasted approximately 5-10 minutes.

[REDACTED] described ZIMMERMAN as mild manner and soft spoken. She has never heard him state any prejudice or bias based on race, age, ethnicity etc..

[REDACTED] stated the HOA felt ZIMMERMAN was doing a good job. Nobody on the HOA board were aware that ZIMMERMAN carried a gun.

[REDACTED] advised that previously ZIMMERMAN had his bicycle stolen from his residence. The SPD located his bike at [REDACTED] Retreat View Circle, the residence of an African American family. Due to the fact that ZIMMERMAN did not have his serial number he stated it was not his bike. [REDACTED] felt that if he was prejudice this would have been an opportunity to have two African American males charged with a crime.

[REDACTED] stressful and long hours. [REDACTED] stated ZIMMERMAN "works well with a diverse group, there was no difference."

ZIMMERMAN eventually left the Advisory Services Group for another group within [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stayed in contact with ZIMMERMAN throughout his career. [REDACTED] was a "mentor" for ZIMMERMAN at work and did not socialize with him outside the work environment. [REDACTED] has not been to ZIMMERMAN's residence. ZIMMERMAN told [REDACTED] he was a college student and was "very proud of the degrees he was pursuing." [REDACTED] encouraged ZIMMERMAN to do well and that ZIMMERMAN had "professional ambition" and "pursued feedback." ZIMMERMAN would seek "confirmation and ask for career advice" from [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated she and ZIMMERMAN has a "good mentor/mentee relationship." [REDACTED] considers ZIMMERMAN to be "very professional and consistent." [REDACTED] stated ZIMMERMAN's temperament is "incredibly pleasant," he is "outgoing person," "positive and pleasant."

The last time [REDACTED] saw ZIMMERMAN was between 8:30 AM and 9:00 AM, at [REDACTED] on the Monday morning after the shooting. [REDACTED] was unaware of the shooting. ZIMMERMAN was in the lobby waiting to speak with [REDACTED] with Human Resources. According to [REDACTED] ZIMMERMAN looked "horrible" and didn't look like himself. ZIMMERMAN looked "beat up physically and emotionally" and he had bandages on the front and back of his head. [REDACTED] is ninety-nine percent sure ZIMMERMAN had a bandage across his nose. [REDACTED] saw abrasions around ZIMMERMAN's bandages and she could see that the bandages were not properly covering the front and back of his head. [REDACTED] stated ZIMMERMAN "looked physically and emotionally distraught and devastated." [REDACTED] could "see something was wrong" and moved ZIMMERMAN into the hallway near the lobby. In reference to the shooting ZIMMERMAN told [REDACTED] the following:

ZIMMERMAN was mugged and not ok, and he ended up shooting and killing TRAYVON MARTIN. ZIMMERMAN is part of a neighborhood watch group and there were a lot of break-ins in his neighborhood. ZIMMERMAN called the police and advised them of what was going on. MARTIN ducked in between houses therefore ZIMMERMAN got out of his car to provide an update to the police on MARTIN's whereabouts. Also, ZIMMERMAN had followed MARTIN because it was late, raining and there were a lot of break-ins. Before ZIMMERMAN got out of his car he disconnected with the police. Before ZIMMERMAN disconnected with the police he was asked if he still needed a unit to respond, ZIMMERMAN replied yes. ZIMMERMAN stated MARTIN jumped him and was

[REDACTED] bashing and slamming his head on the ground. ZIMMERMAN repeated himself a couple of times, stating MARTIN was bashing and slamming my head on the ground. MARTIN told ZIMMERMAN you don't know who you are messing with and MARTIN was kicking the crap out of ZIMMERMAN. During the struggle ZIMMERMAN's shirt lifted up exposing his gun. MARTIN saw and reached for the gun and stated, "now your going to die motherfucker" and "now you fucked up." MARTIN reached for the gun, ZIMMERMAN reached for the gun and ZIMMERMAN stated, "I shot him." ZIMMERMAN then paused and said, "I killed him."

[REDACTED] stated ZIMMERMAN never referred to MARTIN by his name or used any other name or descriptor during the recount of events. ZIMMERMAN only referred to MARTIN as "he" or "him." [REDACTED] also stated ZIMMERMAN is "not dishonest" and does not use "slang," he is "consistently pleasant" and "never curses." [REDACTED] further stated ZIMMERMAN does not use drugs or alcohol, there were no conflicts in the work place and ZIMMERMAN is a "very likeable person."

ZIMMERMAN was "absolutely emotionally devastated" over the shooting. It appeared to [REDACTED] that ZIMMERMAN was "holding himself together" and "still absorbing the situation." [REDACTED] continued to describe ZIMMERMAN as "shocked and devastated" and he "spoke in a low tone with no energy." [REDACTED] stated after ZIMMERMAN told her what happened she "genuinely and absolutely" felt ZIMMERMAN was lucky to be alive and gave him a hug.

ZIMMERMAN told [REDACTED] that he was going to leave after he told [REDACTED] in person, what had happened. [REDACTED] has not had contact with ZIMMERMAN since the Monday after the shooting.

[redacted] date of birth [redacted] social security number [redacted] was interviewed at her place of employment, [redacted] a hair salon located [redacted]. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] came to Florida in 2000 following her graduation from [redacted]. [redacted] came to Florida with her family who now reside in [redacted] FL near the University of [redacted]. [redacted] is scheduled to complete her Associates of Science degree from [redacted] in June, 2012.

Between 2000 and 2006, [redacted] was working as a hairdresser at Supercuts in [redacted]. In about 2001, [redacted] met George Zimmerman who entered Supercuts for a haircut. [redacted] had never before met Zimmerman. Zimmerman and [redacted] spoke to one another as she cut his hair and Zimmerman told her that he had just moved from Manassas, VA and was currently living with his family in Oviedo, FL. Zimmerman was then working as an agent for Allstate Insurance Company. His uncle, [redacted] owned the insurance brokerage where Zimmerman worked.

Zimmerman came back into Supercuts later in the day and asked [redacted] out on a date. They began dating and by either 2002 or 2003 were engaged to be married. Following the engagement, Zimmerman began to exhibit overly protective and territorial behavior over [redacted]. Among other things, Zimmerman told [redacted] that she needed to dress more conservatively. Following the engagement, they began to argue a lot more and [redacted] became so concerned about the deterioration of their relationship that she asked Zimmerman to obtain premarital counseling, which Zimmerman agreed to do. Zimmerman went to see a counselor at [redacted] church in Oviedo, FL. He went once per week for about a year. [redacted] accompanied Zimmerman to the counseling sessions about a quarter of the time.

At about the same time as their engagement, Zimmerman and [redacted] moved into a house together in Lake Mary, FL. The house was owned by Zimmerman's parents who had not yet moved from Manassas, FL. Over the course of the one year they were engaged, their relationship deteriorated. There were three incidents in particular that [REDACTED] indicated were the primary reasons she eventually called off the engagement. First, on the way home from one of their counseling sessions at the church, Zimmerman hit [REDACTED] in the mouth with an open hand because she was chewing gum. [REDACTED] explained that she had previously, but playfully, hit Zimmerman in his mouth while he was chewing gum but Zimmerman didn't like it and this was his way of retaliating.

Second, while they were living in Lake Mary, Zimmerman befriended a next-door neighbor who was a female [REDACTED] (could not recall her name) in her late teens who just had a baby. Zimmerman, who often talked about wanting kids after marriage, was caught by [REDACTED] as he was lying on their bed with the neighbor and her baby playing together. Although Zimmerman and the neighbor were not romantically involved as far as [REDACTED] knew, she considered Zimmerman's behavior with the neighbor to be inappropriate.

Finally, in a third incident, one evening Zimmerman had returned home after playing basketball. Zimmerman was tired and went right to bed. Later that evening, [REDACTED] answered a phone call from a female [REDACTED] (could not recall her name) who asked if Zimmerman was okay. The female explained to [REDACTED] that Zimmerman had been questioned by the police. [REDACTED] never learned the reason why Zimmerman had been questioned but did not think it was anything serious. During the conversation, the female told [REDACTED] that Zimmerman had been telling people that he was no longer engaged. [REDACTED] explained to the female that they were still engaged and living together. The female told [REDACTED] that Zimmerman was on a dating website and was representing himself as single.

Following that conversation, [REDACTED] checked and determined that Zimmerman was in fact advertising himself on a dating website as a single male. [REDACTED] confronted Zimmerman about the website issue and Zimmerman admitted that he was on the site because he sensed he was going to lose [REDACTED] and didn't want to be alone. The discussion degenerated into a serious argument and [REDACTED] and Zimmerman began to push one another aggressively. [REDACTED] dog moved toward Zimmerman and Zimmerman kicked the dog in the stomach. At that point, [REDACTED] decided to leave Zimmerman for good but waited until the morning when he left for work before packing all of her things and moving in with her parents. [REDACTED] left the engagement ring and all of the jewelry Zimmerman had given her at the Lake Mary house.

After she moved out, Zimmerman called her regularly to apologize and said he wanted to get back together. [REDACTED] agreed to go out on a couple of dates with Zimmerman with the idea of reconciliation, however, [REDACTED] soon realized that although Zimmerman was a good talker and could be very persuasive, he hadn't really changed and she was no longer interested in reconciliation.

[REDACTED] subsequently moved into a townhouse in Orlando. On one occasion [REDACTED] was coming home at about 9:30 pm or 10:30 pm one evening and observed Zimmerman's car as it exited her complex. [REDACTED] called Zimmerman on his cellphone and asked him what he was doing as a test to see if he would admit he was at her residence. Zimmerman told her he had just taken a friend home. [REDACTED] asked where that was and Zimmerman gave her a location different from her address. [REDACTED] then told Zimmerman that she just saw him leave her complex. Zimmerman laughed and said he just wanted to talk to her because he was depressed about his grandmother's declining health issues. [REDACTED] advised that Zimmerman was very close with his grandmother. Zimmerman then asked if he could come back and talk to her and [REDACTED] agreed.

Zimmerman and [REDACTED] spoke for a while in her townhouse. When it got late, [REDACTED] told Zimmerman that she wanted to go to sleep. Zimmerman asked if he could stay with her. When she refused he asked if he could just sleep on the couch. When [REDACTED] refused again Zimmerman grabbed her cellphone, put it in his pocket, and said he wasn't going to leave. [REDACTED] attempted to remove the phone from his pocket but Zimmerman pushed her away. [REDACTED] dog then jumped at Zimmerman and bit his face near the jaw. [REDACTED] was then able to retrieve her cellphone and call the police. Zimmerman was gone before the police arrived.

The police encouraged [REDACTED] to file an injunction against Zimmerman which she did the very next day. The police eventually served Zimmerman with the injunction. The day after Zimmerman was served, [REDACTED] was served with an injunction which had been filed by Zimmerman. In that order, Zimmerman indicated that [REDACTED] had accused him of being a womanizer and had scratched his face after he refused to stay with her at her apartment. [REDACTED] advised that Zimmerman's statement was essentially the reverse of what she had stated in her order. They eventually went to court and a mutual one-year injunction order was filed. This occurred in 2005.

Continuation of FD-302 of [REDACTED]

There was essentially no contact with Zimmerman for the next several years. In 2006, [REDACTED] married [REDACTED] but legally separated in February, 2011.

In 2010, Zimmerman sent [REDACTED] some emails asking her how she was doing and requested that they get together to talk. Between 2010 and 2011, [REDACTED] met with Zimmerman on a few occasions. The meetings were amicable. It was during those meetings [REDACTED] learned that Zimmerman had gotten married in 2007. Zimmerman complained that his current wife didn't want kids and he did.

Zimmerman often talked about wanting to be a police officer. [REDACTED] described him as being passionate about the prospect. After they broke up, [REDACTED] learned that Zimmerman was going to Seminole Community College for police training.

Zimmerman was very driven as was his whole family. At family gatherings, [REDACTED] noted that the family often spoke about financial status and material things. Zimmerman's mother talked about marrying into white families in order to improve one's status. Zimmerman's mother is from Peru but married an American white man. [REDACTED] did not get along with Zimmerman's mother and did not think that she approved of [REDACTED] because [REDACTED] mother was from Puerto Rico and her father was from Argentina, although she never explicitly said anything like that to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] felt that Zimmerman's mother wanted him to marry a white female. Zimmerman's mother and grandmother exercised a lot of control over Zimmerman and he always seemed to want to please them. However, Zimmerman came to [REDACTED] defense on one occasion after [REDACTED] had an argument with his mother. Zimmerman turned off the electricity to his mother's house, locked the electrical box, and departed leaving his mother without electricity.

With respect to any biased or prejudiced behavior, [REDACTED] provided the following information:

Over the course of their relationship, [REDACTED] observed Zimmerman as he socialized and played basketball with white, black and Hispanic men. Zimmerman never exhibited any biases or prejudices against anyone and did not use racial epithets of any kind while [REDACTED] knew him. Zimmerman's friends were from all of these racial groups. Zimmerman also has a brother who is gay and Zimmerman has never showed anything but support for his brother.

44A-TP-74471

Continuation of FD-302 of [REDACTED]

On 03/30/2012, Page 5

[REDACTED] said that the only negative thing she could think of with respect to Zimmerman was that he had a bad temper during their relationship. [REDACTED] always thought it could have had something to do with the side effects of Accutane, a drug Zimmerman was taking for acne treatment that she learned could effect one's personality. The worst behavior he exhibited was when he talked about killing himself. [REDACTED] explained that following some of their more intense arguments he would get depressed and talk about driving his car into a lake or taking a bunch of pills. [REDACTED] believed that behavior was designed to get her attention or to garner her sympathy.

Although Zimmerman had a bad temper with [REDACTED] she never witnessed any significant displays of anger or violence toward other people. [REDACTED] said Zimmerman would sometimes get angry and exhibit "road rage" while driving his car, but the incidents never resulted in any confrontations. Outside of the context of their own relationship, [REDACTED] never saw Zimmerman in any physical or verbal confrontation with other people. Zimmerman used to tell her stories of his friends from Manassas, VA who would "handle things" for him if anyone disrespected him.

Although Zimmerman wanted to be a police officer, [REDACTED] did not consider him to be the type of person to put himself in harm's way. [REDACTED] never heard Zimmerman talk about weapons and never saw any weapons during their relationship.

With respect to Zimmerman's involvement in the shooting incident with Trayvon Martin, [REDACTED] said Zimmerman was the last person she would expect to be involved in anything like that. [REDACTED] reiterated that Zimmerman was not the type of person to place himself in a physical confrontation. Zimmerman wanted to be a successful person. If he couldn't be a police officer she knew he wanted to be successful in business.
